CANNERS MEET IN LEHI

The Canners Association will meet in Lehi next Saturday. There are thirty members of the association. They hold meetings about once a month during the growing season to check up on the condition of the markets and usually they meet in Ogden. It lay between Lehi and Pleasant Grove and when lots of Lehi people drew the long and the convention comes to Lehi. They will probably meet in the Commercial Club rooms and have a banquet at Darling's Hotel.

HEAVY BEET YIELD

Beets are coming in at the factory faster than ever before. The harvest commenced and there is already about 60 tons of the crop in. The beets are giving some immense yields. Lehi and Clark have 27 acres of beets on a farm that are averaging 30 tons per acre. Thomas Webb and Sons are harvesting 20 acres from their ranch over and many other farmers are getting immense yields. Beets too are going well up in price so that everybody is making money. The factory is running smooth and cutting between 1,000 and 1,500 tons per day.

WHERE TO VOTE

Polls will open at 7 o'clock this morning. Voters living south of Lehi will vote at the Interurban Depot at the City Hall. Those living north and west of the Lehi Depot will vote in the Ward Meeting house. Those living north and east of S. Lehi's residence will vote at the City Hall. Those living south and east of S. Lehi's residence will vote at the home of Mrs. Martha A. Taylor.

SOCIALISTS HOLD BIG RALLY

Socialists held a rally Tuesday night that filled the Lehi Theatre. Everyone who attended paid ten cents to hear the talk. Over 250 paid admissions. Ben F. Wilson, a speaker of national reputation, was the orator and held his audience almost bound as they listened to him and public ownership of all industrial enterprises and public utilities. The Socialists hope to poll 100 votes in Lehi and 2,000,000 in the nation. Socialists also held a rally at the Lehi Hall Saturday night at about 50 attended.

ON WATER TUNNEL SUSPENDED.

The City has suspended work on the water tunnel above Alpine till the taxes commence coming in. The bid $14 per foot was rejected for driving a fifty foot concrete tunnel.

NEW MAIL CARRIER

A. Willis is Lehi's new mail carrier. He took over the job from Harry Brown Wednesday. It is probable that the post office department will advertise for new bids for carrying the mail.

HAS CLOSE CALL IN SPROCKET WHEEL

E. W. TAYLOR'S CLOTHING TORN FROM HIS BODY AND HE RECEIVED TWO BROKEN RIBS.

Ed. Taylor came near losing his life in an accident at the Sugar factory Saturday. There was some trouble with the worm which operates the Steffens slime mixer. It was not working well and Mr. Taylor got under to fix it. In doing so his clothing caught in the sprocket wheel and he was whirled around the shaft several times and would have been killed but for the fact that his clothing was torn off his body and threw him loose from his perilous position. As it was he received two broken ribs and was considerably bruised up. After being taken home in an auto the doctor made a thorough examination and said there was no danger of serious results, unless it was from typhoid fever from which he is now threatened.

CATTLEMEN'S ROUNDUP

About thirty or forty cattlemen have been spending the latter half of this week in their annual roundup of the cattle in the West Canyon Mountains. Practically all the stock are off their summer range and are now grazing in the fields. Some cattle have wandered down the west side of the mountains and local riders will make a trip over there to bring back the strays. The cattle are looking exceptionally well this fall and many will be sold for beef. Some of the others will be sold for feeders but most of them will be kept as stock cattle and be sent back into the hills in the spring.

REPUBLICAN RALLIES

Nephi L. Morris, Republican candidate for Governor addressed an audience Saturday night that would have more than filled the lower part of the Royal Theatre. His remarks were a plea for exempting the small home and small farm from taxation and plea for prohibition. Preceding Mr. Morris H. R. McMillan of Salt Lake made a talk along National lines. A local glee club consisting of LeRoy Davis, T. F. Kirkham, B. G. Webb and Joseph Glover. Charles Kent of Salt Lake sang a half dozen numbers. Senator Reed Smoot and Miss Helen Todd were scheduled to speak in the Royal last evening.

SENIORS WIN CLASS SERIES

The Seniors won the championship in the basketball series of the local high school this week. Tuesday evening the Seniors won from the Juniors with a score of 48 to 18, and the Sophomores won from the Freshmen by a score of 54 to 3. The finals were played Wednesday when the Seniors won from the Sophs. with a score of 31 to 11. The winning team consists of Fred Kirkham, Art Worlton, Carl Winn, Earl Fox and Shelton Gray.

The series developed the fact that the Lehi high school has material for a championship team and with Prof. Warnick as coach they have a bright future.

SUFFRAGETTES ADDRESS LADIES

Miss Helen Berman of Georgia had Mrs. O. E. Leatherwood of Salt Lake addressed over 100 ladies who crowded into the Commercial Club rooms Monday evening. Their talk was in support of Hughes whom they said favored a national amendment enfranchising women, and was against Wilson who they said opposed it. Punch and cake was served following the speaking.

DEMOCRATIC RALLIES

The Democrats will wind up their campaign with two rallies and a free dance. Tonight United States District Attorney will speak at the Royal Theatre. Besides him there will be addresses by Uncle Jesse Knight, Mrs. Little, a Woman's Club organizer, and F. A. Child. There will also be music by Abraham Anderson and a glee club composed of six young ladies.

Monday night Judge S. R. Thurman will be the speaker and there will be an impersonation of a debate between Judge Hughes and President Wilson.

Eugene Webb is confined to his bed with rheumatism.

Don't fail to read the Royal Theatre ad on another page, and don't fail to attend the show.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Goodwin, Prof. and Mrs. Karl Hopkins, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Worlton went to Salt Lake City Saturday to attend a foot ball game between the University team and Colorado. Harold Goodwin was a member of the victorious team.
